

Introduction to the Internet using MS Explorer 6

Microsoft Internet Explorer 6 & the Internet

- Connecting to the Internet
- What is the Internet?
- What is a web server?
- The Microsoft Internet Explorer web browser
- The Internet Explorer program window
- The on-line web tutorial

Addresses, links & downloading

- Web sites and URLs
- Using hyper links
- Responding to an email link on a web page
- What is FTP?
- Beware of viruses - anti-virus programs
- Saving to disk
- Internet plug-ins
- What are java applets?
- What are java scripts?
- Downloading information from a web page
- Viewing & saving the code behind an Internet page - HTML

Searching the Internet

- Searching the web via Microsoft Internet Explorer
- Searching the Internet using Altavista

- Searching the Internet using Lycos
- Searching the Internet using go/Infoseek
- Searching the Internet using Excite
- Searching the Internet using Hotbot
- Searching the Internet using Web Crawler
- Searching the Internet using Yahoo
- Commonly used search engines

Email & newsgroups

- Using the address book
- Creating and sending emails
- Attached files
- Receiving emails
- What are newsgroups?
- Locating and subscribing to newsgroups
- Posting a message to a newsgroup

Favorites, security & customizing Explorer

- Favorites
- Customizing your options - general
- Customizing your options - security
- Customizing your options - contents
- Customizing your options - connection
- Customizing your options - programs
- Customizing your options - advanced

Internet Explorer 6 keyboard shortcuts

For further information contact:

Phone: 559-346-0801

Cell: 559-392-1786

email: training@wattleweb.com

URL: www.wattleweb.com